

CITY COUNCIL MEETING
SEPTEMBER 28, 1988

PROCLAMATIONS

cc-37

Mayor Pinkerton presented the following proclamations:

- a) "German-American Day"
- b) "Red Ribbon Week"
- c) "Fire Prevention Week"
- d) "National Energy Awareness Month"

Proclamation

WHEREAS, California's economy is the seventh largest in the world and third in the use of petroleum-based fuels; and

WHEREAS, energy constitutes a $60 billion industry in the Golden State, the single largest element of our economy; and

WHEREAS, California consumes more than 3 percent of the world's oil, using more than 42 million gallons of oil a day for transportation alone; and

WHEREAS, the cost and reliability of future energy supplies play a major role in California's economic development; and

WHEREAS, California leads the nation in developing and promoting the research development, demonstration and commercialization of renewable and alternative energy resources and technologies; and

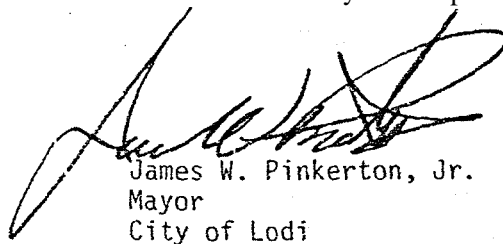

WHEREAS, California continues to pursue program which reduce the state's vulnerability to a world oil supply disruption; and

WHEREAS, the federal government has recognized October as National Energy Awareness Month with this year's theme being "Energy Makes America Work".

NOW, THEREFORE, I, James W. Pinkerton, Jr., Mayor of the City of Lodi, do hereby proclaim October 1988 as Energy Awareness Month in the City of Lodi.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the City of Lodi to be affixed on this 28th day of September, 1988.

James W. Pinkerton, Jr.
Mayor
City of Lodi

Proclamation

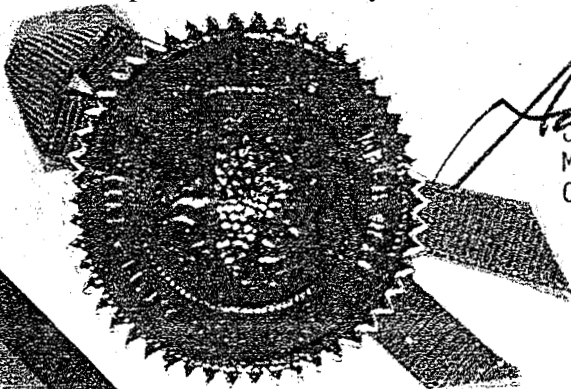

WHEREAS, it was on October 6, 1683 that the first Germans arrived in the United States; and

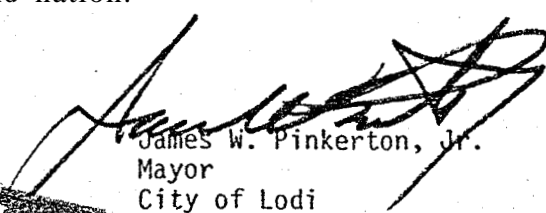

WHEREAS, today, more than 60 million Americans trace at least a part of their ancestry to Germany; and

WHEREAS, the sons and daughters of Germany have served this city and this country steadfastly over the years in all fields; and

WHEREAS, the United States Conference of Mayors in cooperation with the German Association of Cities and The Federal Republic of Germany have joined in a cooperative effort to commemorate the invaluable contributions of Americans of Germans ancestry,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that I, James W. Pinkerton, Jr., Mayor of the City of Lodi, proclaim October 6, 1988 and every October 6 thereafter as ~~GERMAN~~AMERICAN DAY and call upon all citizens to recognize the vital role German-Americans have played in the development of our city and nation.

James W. Pinkerton, Jr.
Mayor
City of Lodi